

CLASH BETWEEN THE BRITISH AND BOERS SAID TO HAVE OCCURED AT DUNDEE.

Latter Reported to have Captured the Place, Killing 37 of the Opposition---England's Parlia- ment Summoned to Share in the War Responsibilities.

London, Oct. 2.—[Special]—The Exchange Telegraph Company says that an engagement between the Boers and British is reported as having taken place at Dundee.

The report further says that the Boers captured the place, killing thirty-seven of the British.

Pietermaritzburg, Natal, Oct. 2.—[Special]—Most intense excitement prevails here generally. The Boers will be in Natal before tomorrow.

Six hundred Orange Free State burghers assembled at Albertina yesterday and started for the Natal frontier.

It is probable they intend a raid on Ladysmith or to co-operate with the Boers in the raids in the destruction of the railroad below that place. Albertina is not far over the frontier in Orange Free State, on a railroad running to Ladysmith.

The position of the British frontier posts in Natal is most critical.

From ten to twenty thousand Boers are now gathered at Volksrust, awaiting word to cross the frontier.

There are strong British positions at New Castle and Dundee, but they are not strong enough to cope with the force the Boers can now put into Natal.

Mismanagement of the British war office in Natal is daily more apparent.

British Sent to Somali Coast.

Aden, Oct. 2.—[Special]—The uprising in England's dependencies, now that her attention is concentrated in South Africa, threatens to begin here.

The local Mahdi has declared himself a Mahdi and is preparing to over-run the Somali coast.

Four hundred British soldiers were sent to the scene.

ENGLISH PARLIAMENT IS CALLED

Summoned to Share in the Responsibilities in South Africa

London, Oct. 2.—[Special]—It is announced that parliament meets Oct. 17. Parliament was summoned by the government to share in the responsibility for the events in South Africa and to vote funds for the war office.

The session will doubtless be stormy. The opinion here is that general hostilities will begin before the week is ended, if not by Wednesday.

It is reported that General Sir Redvers, Henry Buller, the future commander of the South African forces in the field, will leave for the Cape Friday, with twelve hundred troops.

Pretoria, S. A. R., Oct. 2.—The entire railway system of the South African Republic has passed under the control of the military authorities. This system, centering in Johannesburg, admits of setting down troops within 100 miles of the Bechuanaland border on the west; the Natal branch, the southern terminus of which is Durban, on the coast, passes the border at Laing's Nek; the eastern division reaches the Portuguese border a little northwest of Lorenzo Marques, and reaches the coast of Delagoa bay, while the southwestern branch passes through the length of Orange Free State and crosses the Cape Colony frontier at two points on the Orange river.

The military trains are moving toward the Natal frontier at Volksrust, and the town is in a state of wild enthusiasm. Gen. Joubert, vice president of the republic and nominal commander of the Boer forces, left Saturday. The burghers who are leaving under arms include many British-born colonists.

THE LATEST ADVICES IN LONDON.

Dispatches from South Africa Give Greater Cause for Alarm.

London, Oct. 2.—From South Africa the news is wholly concerned with feverish preparations for hostilities. Commandant-General Joubert is reported to have said that he has 10,000 men on the Natal border, and that Commandant Cronje has 3,000 on the Bechuanaland side.

The British camp in the vicinity of Dundee consists of 5,000 men, with twenty-four guns in strong position.

said, explains why it is the policy of the British government to force the Boers to take the first step, if war must come.

It is also believed to explain, on the other hand, why the Boers so obstinately refuse to accede even to the reasonable demands of Great Britain. Kruger knows his hands are tied. Some credence is lent this view by the fact that the German ambassador was closeted with Lord Salisbury immediately after the recent cabinet meetings held to consider the South African situation.

KRUGER WOULD NOT STRIKE FIRST.

President of the Transvaal Hopes to Place Blame on British.

Cape Town, Oct. 2.—The Hon. J. H. Hofmeyr, the Afrikaner leader, is prepared to proceed at once to Pretoria in the capacity of British commissioner, with assurance that he will obtain from the government of the republic the concession of the five-year franchise in exchange for guarantees of peace. The Cape Dutch are highly incensed at Sir Alfred Milner for his failure to avail himself of the proffered mediation.

Thirty thousand Boers are under arms in the Transvaal, while the total of the British forces available for instant action in South Africa is but 16,000. In face of this disparity of force, British military and diplomatic officials here are highly apprehensive of an aggressive move on the part of the burghers. Their fears are intensified by the fact that the Boers who already have been sent to the front have within their reach several strategic points of rare importance.

President Kruger, on the other hand, is reported as saying that God will not fight on the side of the Boers if they advance beyond their own boundaries before a definite outbreak of hostilities.

Says Great Britain Blunders.

Berlin, Oct. 2.—The National Zeitung, in discussing the imminence of war in the Transvaal, says that Great Britain is playing for a great stake, but that she is committing in South Africa the same blunder as in the last century in the case of the American colonies. In case of British victory, the Zeitung declares, the French position in Madagascar will be menaced. South Africa is a new Ireland, offering favorable conditions for French agitation. On the other hand, in case of defeat at the hands of the Boers, Great Britain's position among the powers will be seriously endangered.

Irish Make a Loud Protest.

Dublin, Oct. 2.—A monster mass-meeting in protest against British aggression in South Africa was held in Dublin Sunday. Resolutions expressing sympathy with the Boers received the unanimous endorsement of the 10,000 persons present.

A number of public bodies throughout Ireland within the last few days have passed similar resolutions.

British Warship's Sudden Move.

Gibraltar, Oct. 2.—The British destroyer Grifon has just received instructions to proceed forthwith to sea under sealed orders. This sudden move is the cause of much speculation in official circles here, in view of the activity of the war office in preparing for the imminent trouble in South Africa.

Dundee Fears Attack by Boers.

Dundee, Natal, Oct. 2.—Five thousand Boers are now concentrated in close proximity to the frontier, and it is reported that they are about to attack Dundee. The most complete precautions have been taken.

FORECAST OF WEATHER

Chicago, Oct. 2.—[Special]—Forecast for Wisconsin:

Fair and warmer tonight and Tuesday.

Causes of Lockjaw.

Tetanus, or lockjaw, the almost uniformly fatal disease which has developed as the result of so many of the Fourth of July accidents, is a bacteriological disease. The bacillus of tetanus was first discovered in 1884. The bacilli are found commonly in garden earth and other substances. That tetanus is dangerous only in injuries of a mangled or lacerated character is explained, says the Chicago Tribune, by the fact that because of such injuries the bacilli are enabled to get directly into the blood. In 1897 the antitoxin or remedy for tetanus was first discovered by the members of the Pasteur Institute in Paris. The antitoxin serum must be injected into the brain to counteract the effect of the bacilli on the nerves. So far as tested the tetanus antitoxin has proved successful in a fair proportion of cases.

Women Wage Earners.

There are 10,000 artists, 2,725 authors, 1,145 clergymen, 888 newspaper women, 279 detectives, 238 lawyers and 40 chemists. Two Cincinnati women make $15,000 a year out of a restaurant, and the woman manager of a California insurance company receives a salary of $10,000.

ARE INVESTIGATING THE KOSSOW MURDER

CORONER HOLDS AN INQUEST UPON THE BODY.

FUNERAL OF THE MILWAUKEE POLICE OFFICER WILL BE HELD TOMORROW—CRANDON MURDERER GETS TWO YEARS IN WAU- PESN CAMP.

Milwaukee, Wis., Oct. 2.—Herman Mueller, who murdered Patrolman John Kossow Saturday noon, was kept in his cell at the Central station all yesterday, nobody being permitted to talk with him. He was quiet and orderly and gave the station officers no trouble. Coroner Van Lare will hold an inquest upon the body of Officer Kossow this morning. It has not been definitely settled whether Mueller will be taken into court today, but it is likely that he will not have a hearing until after the inquest.

The funeral of Patrolman Kossow will take place at 2 o'clock tomorrow afternoon from the residence, 472 Seventeenth avenue. The pallbearers, all officers, will be selected today. Chief Jansen will also detail an escort.

Traitors in Freshmen Camp.

Madison, Wis., Oct. 2.—Madison was the scene of war Saturday when the freshmen and sophomores of the university met in their first skirmish. A notice, announcing a meeting of the freshmen class to organize as a call to arms, and when the freshmen gathered together at main hall, a goodly sprinkling of traitor sophs were in the midst and voted and shouted in exuberant joy. After the election had passed off in a whirlwind of enthusiasm, the sophomores proceeded to have fun with the candidates their ballots had elected. Speeches from the newly chosen officers were called for and in a furor of frantic admiration they were borne down to Ladies' hall, there to orate till further orders. Escape was hopeless, and when the orators were hoarse from talking and protested to their pseudo classmates that they could speak no more, the dictum went forth that they would have to sing. The excuses that they didn't know songs wouldn't go, and pretty soon "Mary's Little Lamb" in rag time was the burden of a tune discourse from the proud president, vice president and secretary of the newly arrived class.

About this time the freshmen began to suspect that some of their classmates were suspiciously patriotic. This idea has since been steadily growing among them and now when it is generally known that their officers were thus treated in mockery by foes in base disguise, threats of dire vengeance fill the air. Conspicuous posters announce the contempt and defiance with which this base movement is regarded, and the wetness of Lake Mendota is looked for in the near future.

The class differences so far have been characterized by an utter absence of anything like ill-temper.

Millard Strike It Rich.

Chippewa Falls, Wis., Oct. 2.—Visions of great wealth have come to the half dozen friends of former Assemblyman Millard of this city, who took possession after the company he formed after his return from the Copper River country in Alaska some time ago, and to which territory he removed with all the enthusiasm of a much younger argonaut.

A letter from Mr. Millard, received recently, says he has secured an interest in one of the richest copper mines in the world. He says that he has invested in a mine with from 41 to 92 feet of solid bromite ore, 70 per cent of which is copper, and the remainder silver and gold. Investigations so far prove that the ore extends 800 feet in one direction and 900 in another, and that if this vein holds its own 100 feet down, as it shows on the surface, it will be worth millions.

The mine is situated on the Shystone river and was purchased from Nichol, the Indian chief, who has retained an interest.

Those not interested with Mr. Millard feel gratified that he has "struck it rich." Before misfortune came to the former mayor, and when he was rated as worth $50,000 or $60,000, there was nothing in his power that Mr. Millard could not do for this city. He spent money freely and while he was mayor the city was prosperous. To his enterprise many public improvements are due. If he has made his "pile" and returns here it may be expected that he will make the city "blossom like the rose."

Mr. Millard Writes that his hair has turned as white as snow.

Under some misapprehension of the penalty for manslaughter in the third degree, the jury brought in their verdict under that statute, supposing the minimum penalty was four years, when the maximum penalty is only four years. Judge Goodland sentenced Stoliker to two years and six months in the penitentiary. Stoliker was tried for killing his cousin, Milton Stoliker at North Crandon last December.

Both efforts were very eloquent and appreciated by the large audiences assembled.

Rev. Kempton departed today for Green Bay, Wis., to attend the state convention of the Baptists.

ILLINOIS MILLS BURNED

Plant Near Bloomington at a Loss of $250,000—One Man Dead

Bloomington, Ill., Oct. 2.—The plant of the Illinois Cereal company, three-fourths of a mile west of Bloomington, took fire at 10 o'clock Sunday night, and, except for the small office building, was totally destroyed. It was impossible to get water pressure for the department. The loss is $250,000.

Melvin Penn, night watchman, aged 52 years, unmarried, was found crushed to death beneath a falling wall. Bert King, a packer, was probably fatally burned, and several others were badly scorched. The fire originated from an explosion of mill dust, the whole structure apparently breaking out in flame at once. The property was owned by W. G. Norton and E. A. Gooding, formerly of Lockport, and Marshall G. Linn of Bloomington.

James Harlan Is Dying.

Mount Pleasant, Iowa, Oct. 2.—James Harlan, last living member of Abraham Lincoln's cabinet and Iowa's "grand old man," is lying at the point of death at his home in this city. His passing away is expected at any moment. Urgent telegrams have been sent to his daughter, Mrs. Robert T. Lincoln of Chicago, who is now at Monmouth Beach, N. J., summoning her to his bedside, but it is feared she cannot arrive in time. Mr. Harlan is 79 years old.

NO THOUGHT OF SURRENDER.

Refusal to Recognize the Filipino Government Prevents an Agreement Being Reached—Released Prisoners.

Manila, Oct. 2.—Gen. Alejandrino, an insurgent officer of note, representing the Filipino government, held a conference with Gen. Otis Sunday in Manila. He came through the American lines at Angeles accompanied by fourteen American prisoners liberated by Aguinaldo.

Gen. Otis declined to acknowledge the existence of a Filipino government, but expressed himself as willing to correspond with Aguinaldo or the general commanding the insurgent forces in regard to the surrender of the Filipino army. Aguinaldo sends word by his representative that he wants peace and desires to send a political committee representing the Filipino government to Gen. Otis to treat for terms of surrender. This Gen. Otis assured Alejandrino was out of the question, as it would be impossible for him to recognize any form of government established by the Filipinos. Another conference has been arranged.

The Filipino commissioner visited the wounded prisoners in the hospitals of this city. He was received with enthusiastic demonstrations of welcome by the native population. Great crowds assembled about the hotel where he is stopping, and cheers and shouts arose as he drove out to the hospitals and to visit Gen. Otis.

Gen. Wheaton has returned to Manila. He has been succeeded in the command of his brigade by Gen. Bates.

Alejandrino Gives His Views.

Manila, Oct. 2.—Aguinaldo's third attempt to shift his difficulties into the field of diplomacy is a repetition of the other one or two, with an impossible endeavor to obtain some sort of recognition of his so-called government.

"We desired peace, but peace with independence and honor," said Gen. Alejandrino, the Filipino envoy.

"How long can the Filipino army and people withstand 60,000 American troops?" was asked.

"Fighting in our way we can maintain a state of war and the necessity for a large army of occupation indefinitely. You Americans are holding a few miles around Manila, a narrow line of railroad to Angeles and a circle of country around San Fernando. But you are ignorant of the resources of Luzon. We hold the immense, rich, productive northern country from which to draw. Our people contribute the money and food which maintain our army, and this is done at a minimum of cost."

Discussing the question of recognition by the United States of the so-called Filipino government, Gen. Alejandrino said:

"The freedom of the American prisoners who have just been turned over to you was decreed by the Filipino congress. Your government has accepted them. It will doubtless accept any others that our government may free."

Saturday was an eventful day with the northern outposts of the American army at Angeles. Early in the morning the Filipino peace commission appeared. The American prisoners followed. Then a commission of three Spaniards, to negotiate for the release of the Spanish prisoners, departed up the railroad with a retinue of servants and buffalo carts carrying their baggage. The American prisoners are: Corporal Otto Schen and Privates Al-hair Ruback, Otto Wagner and Peter

W. W. STEVENS FOR PRESIDING ELDER

TO HAVE CHARGE OF JANESVILLE DISTRICT.

His Lake Geneva Charge is Given to Dr. W. R. Bosworth, Formerly Pastor of the Local M. E. Church — Last Meeting of the Cabinet.

The last cabinet meeting of the Waukesha M. E. conference was held Saturday afternoon. According to the rumors, it is settled that W. W. Stevens of Lake Geneva will be appointed presiding elder of the Janesville district, and that F. A. Pease, the retiring presidency elder of the district, will go the Division Street church at Fond du Lac, which pays $1,850 a year.

R. W. Bosworth, formerly presiding elder of the Janesville district, who has been in charge of the Division street church, Milwaukee, for the past four years, it is said, is to go to Lake Geneva, on the charge held by Mr. Stevens for the past two years. R. K. Manaton of Delavan, formerly pastor of the local First M. E. church, will be assigned to Summerfield. With regard to Milwaukee churches, it is said that Albert Gilbert, who has just come into the conference, is decided on for Sherman Street church, in place of E. S. McChesney, and A. R. Grant of Ripon, who will have charge of Kingsley church in place of T. R. Srowls.

Regarding the resolution of the German Conference committee, part of which have passed the conference, a prominent clergyman said: "The resolutions are not binding on the delegates to the general conference. The report was not fully passed, and even if it had been it would not have been binding on the delegates. The delegates elected by the conference, as well as the lay delegates, are conservative men, and they will not advocate the extreme measures proposed by the resolutions. It is a misrepresentation of Wisconsin Methodists to have the idea go forth that a majority of the ministers favored the resolutions. Some of the resolutions have passed, it is true, but fully 50 per cent. of the clergyman in the bar of the conference did not vote at all on the question."

Delegates to General Conference
A glaze of ice in the Fox river was one of Nature's contributions to the fourth morning of the fifty-third conference. It took two more ballots to decide the delegate question, Presiding Elder Farmer and Refining Elder F. A. Pease of the Janesville district, gaining on each ballot until finally elected. The result is that the four who stood highest on the first ballot Friday, have been finally elected, two on the second ballot and two on the fourth.

The delegation elected to the general conference is one of the best that Wisconsin has sent in years.

Bishop Hurst addressed the conference, and in closing said he hoped to see a Wisconsin building at the university. "It would cost $125,000," he said, "and another $125,000 to endow it. I should be glad to get from your state what you can give, but don't let it be missed from Lawrence university at Appleton."

On request of Presiding Elder Millar, O. B. Clark of Fall River, was placed on the list of conference supernumerary clergymen, and on request of Presiding Elder Porter, Mathias Himebaugh was given a similar relation. Mr. Himebaugh has been in charge of the Oshkosh mission for several years. He has attended every annual conference in Wisconsin since 1850.

Election of Trustees and Stewards
On motion of George H. Trever the report of the General Conference committee was taken up. He moved the adoption of this clause of the report: "We ask that the General Conference be memorialized to enact legislation providing for the election of trustees and stewards by the churches."

R. W. Bosworth moved an amendment making the pastor's salary a legal claim against the church.

The amendment was laid on the table. It was moved to lay the main resolution on the table, but the conference refused to do so.

Another amendment was suggested, giving a vote in the election of stewards to church members over 18 years of age, and this was adopted. The same action was taken in respect to the election of trustees.

William Rollins presented the report of the Conference Committee on Education. It urged support of Lawrence university. J. E. Farmer and D. C. John were recommended as visitors at Lawrence for two years and George H. Trever for one year. John Schneider and F. A. Pease as visitors of the Evanson Biblical institute.

Sabin Halsey of Sharon, presented the report of the Committee on Church Insurance.

The business of the conference is about completed and the last sessions took place today. When everything else has been concluded the pulpit appointments will be announced.

The minutes of the conference will be published about Oct. 21.

IT STRUCK A POPULAR CHORD

"Two Married Men" Made Saturday Night's Audience Laugh.

The largest audience which has assembled in Myers Grand opera house this season, "laughed and grew fat" at the many mirth-provoking situations in George R. Edison's new farce comedy, "Two Married Men" last Saturday evening. There was all kinds of trouble for the two benedicts and the predicaments into which they were cast were of such a nature as to keep up a continuous round of laughter. Manager Myers' guarantee evidently helped to swell the crowds. There was no occasion for him to refund the admission price in a single instance, and all were well pleased. Mr. Myers was taking no chances whatever, for he was well aware of the fact that the production was a meritorious one.

S. S. Simpson, as Carnaby Fix, one of the married men, made a great hit and his acting was simply immense and J. Donald Clark, as Timothy Tackleback, the other married man, was very clever. Charles E. Schilling, as Duke d. k., an old sport, was equal to the best and his musical specialties were great. Roy Southard, the negro, made the hit of the evening and his singing was much enjoyed. The dancing by the Healy sisters was as good as has been seen on the local stage.

"A Ragtime Reception"

The new musical comedy, "A Ragtime Reception," will be the attraction offered by Manager Myers at the Myers Grand next Thursday, Oct. 5.

It is a most amusing attraction, an unquestionably success, and a record breaker at the box office. It is not only new as regards the plot of the comedy, but in the treatment of the same. It deals with the troubles of a young married woman (formerly queen of a burlesque company) and her troubles are much added to by the presence of a ragtime coon and a ragtime hobo, which is helped along by a ragtime soubrette, played by Miss Galdy Van, the New York World's "red soubrette," said to Mrs. N. Digestion. (The former burlesque queen) played by Miss Beatrice Goldie, the famous comic opera prima donna. The ragtime coon of Mr. Charles Roach, who goes about industriously mixing things up, and when he is not singing Ragtime songs and dances, he is hard at work looking for action for his Ragtime razor. Mr. Gus Pixley, the Ragtime tramp, whistles his way through, making trouble for everyone, and getting into all kinds of complications and situations, but finally comes to the front as the main stay of the Ragtime Burlesque company, of which he becomes a member. There is a laugh in the piece every minute, full of broad comedy and farcical situations, the girls are pretty and handsomely costumed, and the comedians and specialties clever.

Hoyt's "A Stranger in New York"

Charles Hoyt, one of the most prolific of modern playwrights, has furnished the amusement loving public with many a clever satire and entertaining picture of lifelike characters, whose peculiarities he so forcibly and entertainingly illustrates. But in his latest work, "A Stranger in New York," which comes to this city next Saturday evening in matinee and evening performance at the Myers Grand Opera house. It is said that for downright fun and clean-cut amusement it is far ahead of anything of its class, and as a success and a money-maker it has already eclipsed the record of his famous "A Trip to Chinatown."

The cast is announced as being the best ever seen in a Hoyt comedy, and includes all the best artists in the employ of Messrs. Hoyt & McKee.

As a scenic production it clearly surpasses all the other Hoyt efforts. Every particle of scenery, stage accessories and every identical thing used in the production here will be brought from Hoyt's Theatre, thus assuring the same presentation in every way as that given in New York.

BELOIT COLLEGE CAME RUSH

To Be Conducted According to Rules of Board of Control

The first authorized cane rush between the freshmen and sophomore classes of Beloit college, will come off on Saturday Oct. 14. The run will be conducted strictly to rules adopted by the Board of Control and the Athletic board will boss the job and see that objectional features are barred. The freshmen will be given the cane and allowed to start the rush in the middle of the field at the sound of the referee's whistle and will have ten yards' start against the sophomores, who will line up to meet them. The object will be to push the cane over the goal of the opposing side, and the class in whose territory the cane is at the end of twenty minutes' rushing loses the stick. Marshals will be chosen from the upper classes to see that kicking, striking with fists and throttling is barred entirely. The rush fever has been growing in the college for four terms and the students can no longer do without it. It has in years past been the source of much trouble and many a student has been disciplined for participating in them. Now with an authorized cane rush there will be great enthusiasm.

FIRST GAME OF THE FOOTBALL SEASON

FIRST HIGH SCHOOL ELEVEN
WINS FROM SECOND.

Initiatory Game at Athletic Park Saturday Afternoon Resulted in a Score of 44 to 5—Wisconsin Takes Game From Lake Forest 45 to 0—Beloit Defeats Whitewater.

The opening of the football season in Janesville Saturday was marked by a one-sided game between the first and second teams of the local High school at Athletic park. The game was witnessed by a fair sized crowd. The first team, of course, was victorious, defeating their opponents by a score of 44 to 5.

The game was void of excitement, which can be overlooked by the fact that it was the first of the season. Withal, it was quite interesting and all were fairly well pleased. A finer day for a match could not be asked for. It was simply immense.

The first team touchdowns were made as follows: A. Ryan, 1; W. Ryan, 2; Atwood 3; Casey 1; Galbraith 1. Bump was successful in kicking four goals. The second team secured their four points on a fumble, or ball fumbled on delayed play. Farley secured it back of first team's line and ran half length of field for touchdown. The ball was touched contrary to rules, hence no chance to kick goal. Twenty-minute halves were played.

Taking everything into consideration, the boys did very well and with a better system of coaching, some interesting games may be expected during the present season.

The teams lined up as follows:

A. Ryan, right end	Fairly
Baumann, right tackle	Fisher, Hutchinson
Boyd, right guard	Boyd, Knox
Lovely, center	Turnbull
Air, left guard	Kesting
Ryan and Fisher, left tackle	Morrill
Casey, left end	Sutherland
Bump (captain)	quarterback
Galbraith, right half	London
Griffith, W. Ryan, left half	Ida
Atwood, full back	Granger
O'Leary, Matthews and Dougherty
Line-men—Snyder and Carr.

The first game with an outside team will be with the Whitewater High school team next Saturday afternoon.

The delay in Saturday's game was occasioned by the neglect of the management to see that a football was on the ground before the time to begin.

Wisconsin Defeats Lake Forest.

The first football game of the season between the State University and the Lake Forest teams at Madison Saturday, resulted in a score of 45 to 0 in favor of the university. Lake Forest never got within hailing distance of Wisconsin's goal posts. The game was a plunging one throughout, though the few runs around the ends netted long gains. The features were Peele's plunges through the center, Wilmarth's long runs in the first half, while Hamilton's spectacular run in last half of sixty-five yards was the only play arousing the enthusiasm of the large crowd of rooters. Every man in the team played his position well, and Wisconsin can congratulate herself on her football material. There was such a disparity of weight, however, between the teams that it is impossible to draw accurate conclusions from the result of Saturday's game.

The line-up was as follows:

LAKE FOREST.	WISCONSIN.
Corbus, Willis, center	Chamberlain, A.
Rosevaldt, right guard	Chamberlain, R.
Walker, left guard	Rogers
Scott, right tackle	Curts
Scott, Tompkins, left tackle	Blair
Robert, right end	Weight, Joliffe, A.
Campbell, Capt., left end	Cochens, E.
Mayr, quarterback	Wilmarth, B.
Pierson, right half	Hamilton
McCartney, left half	Poole, Juneau
Lester, Ross, fullback	Driver
Roforee—Walter Alexander.

Beloit Wins From Whitewater.

The Beloit college football team defeated the Whitewater Normal school eleven, 59 to 0 in the game at Keep Athletic park, Beloit, Saturday afternoon. Beloit showed some marked improvement and will give Madison a lively argument next Saturday in Milwaukee. Although one-sided the game was in no sense a walkover and abounded in some very pretty plays and brilliant runs by the Beloit men. Whitewater's line was badly battered by the onslaught of Beloit's heavy line, but they kept pluckily at it and played a nervy, but hopeless game. The team lined up as follows:

BELOIT.	Position.	WHITewater.
S. Hollenbeck, left tackle		Riedelbach
N. Hollenbeck, left guard		Green
Moseley, center		Groom
Ensign and
Derling, right guard		Mittler
Moyers, right tackle		Norris
Bunge, right end		Baker
Meadows, Smith, left halfback		Hutton
Whitney, Slater, right halfback		Everson
Alton, quarterback		Hahn
Merrill, fullback		Hammerson
Umpire—Harvey Holmes of Madison.
Referee—Carroll Fugitt of Madison.
Touchdowns—Merrill 4; Hollenbeck 2; Bunge, Meadows, Whitney, Allen.
Goals—Merrill 3.

Coch-McCarthy watched the game and gathered information for the contest against Beloit in Milwaukee next Saturday.

FARMER DRAGGED TO DEATH

Sextus Case of Walworth County, a Victim of an Accident.

Whitewater, Wis., Oct. 2.—Sextus Case, a farmer living near there, was found dead in his yard Saturday, having been dragged along the road, his clothing attached to the step of his buggy. He was at the fair at Jefferson, Friday, and from traces found along the way it is evident that he fell from his buggy when about four miles from home, his clothing catching so that he was dragged over the road. His daughter is a teacher in the Milwaukee public schools.

NEW LEAGUE IS AFTER ADKINS

Backer of Association is After the Janesville Pitcher.

Merle Adkins, Janesville's crack ball twirler, is in receipt of the following letter from R. G. Evans of Milwaukee, a wealthy man, who is interested in the proposed new league:

Milwaukee, Wis., Sept. 27.

My Dear Adkins: In conversation with President H. D. Quin regarding the new American association today, I mentioned you, telling him that I considered you the best pitcher in the state and one of the best I have ever seen. He requested me to say to you that the new association will surely be an established fact before the first of next January, and that they will be able to offer players a better contract than the Western league will. He requests that you communicate with him before signing elsewhere. In an acquaintance extending over a period of fifteen years I have found Mr. Quin a gentleman of sterling integrity and a thorough business man, whose "word is as good as his bond," and I would strongly advise you to listen to what he has to say.

If you think this letter will advance your interest in any way you are at liberty to use it. I consider you fit for the fastest baseball company.

Yours truly,

R. G. EVANS.

The above is a good indication that the league will be in the field next season. Adkins says that if he plays professional ball next year it will be under the National league jurisdiction, as he is already reserved by Connie Mack of the Milwaukee team.

WHITewater TALENT SOUGHT

Mr. and Mrs. Arthur V. Johnson Join a Theatrical Organization.

Mr. and Mrs. Arthur V. Johnson of Whitewater, left the early part of the week for Cumberland, Md., where they join the John D'Ormond and Agnes Fuller company, which starts on a tour of the New England states. New York and Pennsylvania on Oct. 1. Mr. Johnson is the youngest son of the Rev. Dr. Johnson, rector of the Episcopal church of that place. Both Mr. and Mrs. Johnson have always had a predilection for the stage and have shown themselves unusually gifted both in comedy and operatic roles in productions by local talent. However, it was only recently that they decided to adopt acting as their life work. They traveled part of last season with the William Owen Theatrical company and since returning to Whitewater, Mr. Johnson has trained local talent, staged and taken the leading part in "David Garrick," "Land Me Five Shillings," "Patience," and "The Lady of Lyons," given of the opera house there with great success. He is a natural comedian and has a very good baritone voice. During the present season they will play roles among others in the Three Guardsmen, Ingomar and Virginia. Mr. Johnson is 23 years of age. Prior to her marriage Mrs. Johnson was Miss Webb of Whitewater.

ENJOYED THEIR FIRST SOCIAL

United Commercial Travelers' Open the Winter Season

The United Commercial Travelers' Association held their first social of the winter at East Side Odd Fellows' hall Saturday night, and it was a successful affair in every way. An excellent oyster supper was enjoyed by those so fortunate as to be present, and the toothsome bivalves were served in nearly every way known to culinary art. Other viands graced the festive board and were capably served by A. F. Spooner, Fred Vanderwater and W. E. Clinton. After the supper had been disposed of the balance of the evening was spent in a general social manner, consisting in chatting and card playing. Dancing was not indulged in. The United Commercial Travelers are noted for the good times they are capable of having together, and their first social ably sustained their reputation in that respect.

1462—Richard III of England born at Fotheringhay castle; killed at Bosworth.
1700—Charles III of Spain signed his famous will, bequeathing his dominions to a French prince, which caused the dreadful war of the Spanish succession.

1780—Major John André, adjutant general of the British forces in America, hanged as a spy.
1782—The erratic General Charles Lee, English, but a soldier in the American army, died in Philadelphia; born in Cheshire 1731.

OUR GROWING INDUSTRIES

A little table, has been compiled by the Bureau of Statistics with a view to showing how wonderfully our industries have grown during the past nine years. The showing made is remarkable and will certainly be far from comforting to the manufacturers of Europe. A portion of the table is appended:

	1890.	1890.	Per cent.
Iron, tons, consumed	4,577,407	4,496,354	46
Cotton, bales, taken	3,330,015	2,340,478	42
Wool, pounds, estimated of trade	300,000,000	400,000,000	25
Silk, imports, raw, pounds	9,961,145	5,943,300	63
India rubber, pounds	51,079,268	33,842,374	51
Boots and shoes, cases shipped	2,700,377	2,110,109	28

By consulting the census returns of 1890 it is found that the iron industry then employed some 500,000 men, that the cotton mills furnished work for some 150,000 and the boot and shoe factories employed 182,000, while 60,000 were given work by the silk and rubber trade. If the table given above is correct, and it is certainly as near correct as statistics can be, the industries named are now employing 450,000 more people than in 1890, and instead of furnishing work for 892,000 people, they are employing 1,342,000. The United States is certainly expanding in a commercial way as well as in the matter of territory, and we believe that the start has just been made. There are those, however, who oppose this commercial expansion and advocate a policy of free trade which would make it necessary to add a column showing the percentage of decrease in the table given above. Nine years of free trade would tell an entirely different story—Des Moines (Ia.) "State Register."

According to the newspapers large exports of heavy draft horses from Chicago to London will be made the latter part of the week. Orders by cable were received at the Union stock yards yesterday to buy up all the 1,200-pound "gunners" the western market afforded and make arrangements for immediate shipment. The animals are wanted for the South African campaign, and the commission was marked "rush" and "imperative." The news was grabbed up by the telegraph operators and hurled at breeders in Illinois, Missouri, and Iowa, with instructions to reserve all choice stock. The first consignment will probably leave Chicago for England the latter part of the week.

The Janesville policeman who shot at a burglar and missed him, may be interested in knowing that a Muncie, Ind., woman recently killed a thief by striking him with a hair-brush. Why not try the hairbrush here? It might be found to take the place of both the gun and the "hickory uniform."

Under existing laws, the steamship companies are not responsible, financially, for the lives entrusted to their care. Perhaps if this law were changed, there would be fewer exhibitions of brutality such as was given by the drunken sailors of the steamer Scotsman.

A member of the Chicago Single Tax club tried to belittle Dewey's victory, and as a result, the club is split into two factions and may have to dissolve. People who "know all about it" will be wise in holding their peace, just at present at least.

An Oshkosh judge has decided that in cases of sheriffs, twenty-four hours constitute a day's work. This is pretty hard, but we do not believe that it will cause any material reduction in the number of candidates for office.

A coal famine is threatened in Chicago. The dealers are behind on their orders, and the visible supply is growing visibly less each day—since the weather changed.

The drunken sailors of the steamer Scotsman deserve severe punishment. They were, it appears, more to be feared than the elements, as the luckless passengers can bear testimony.

When Dewey gets through with the New York celebration, people should leave him alone for awhile. Even the idol of the country has some rights.

HAS CONFERENCE WITH OTIS.

Aguinaldo's Agent Talks with the Commander-in-Chief.

Rollings, all of the Third infantry, captured near Baliuag July 28. Joseph Macdriath, James Boyle, William Miller, John Crinslaw, Thomas Dalia and Eli Drew of the Sixteenth infantry, captured at Calocan in August.

Paul Spillano and Louis Ford of the Fourth infantry.

Charles Willander, a discharged Third artillery man, captured by bandits while boating near Malabon.

George Graham, colored, an orderly of the Sixteenth infantry.

The prisoners unanimously praised their treatment. One man said: "We have been given the best the country afforded—fine houses for quarters, servants, good food, plenty of wine and a money allowance. Aguinaldo visited us and shook hands. Three of the boys refused to shake hands with him."

The released soldiers say the idea of independence has taken firm hold of the Filipinos, and they threaten if conquered to exterminate the Americans by assassination. Aguinaldo seemed popular among all the people the prisoners met. The country, they say, is full of rich crops.

While Aguinaldo only offered to release the prisoners in Tarlac, there is great disappointment at the fact that Lieut. Gilmore's party failed to arrive.

WILL BOMBARD ORANI.

Manila, Oct. 2.—A number of gunboats and an armored barge, with a force of 250 sailors and marines, have gone to Orani, which town will be destroyed in retaliation for the attack on the gunboat Urdaneta and the killing of a part of her crew. It is believed that Cadet Wood and his men were invited ashore by professedly friendly natives and thus led into the rebel ambush, in which they were killed or captured. Afterward their vessel was looted, burned and scuttled.

AN ECLIPSE IN INDIA.

Belief of the Natives That Black Monsters Are Devouring the Sun.

Mr. R. D. Mackenzie, in the Century, gives a picturesque account of the scenes attending a solar eclipse as observed at Benares. While the demons Rahu and Kaytu are devouring the sun millions of natives plunge into the sacred Ganges and its tributaries to wash away their accumulated sins. The hour of the eclipse is approaching. My studio boat has drifted along almost the entire length of the city front, and is now returning. It goes farther out toward the middle of the great river to gain relief from the bewildering detail, and to enable me to view the broader lines of this wonderful panorama. Whichever way the eye may turn it is held a prisoner by the domes and minarets of Auring-Zeb's mosque, which rises above the whole mass of the city. Its audacity is admirable, and the beauty of its slender shafts, as they melt into the hot sky, is exquisitely fascinating. Its picturesque value can scarcely be questioned; without it one would have a monotonous mass, with no dominating or central motive. I have almost forgotten the eclipse and the anxious multitude that literally paves the city front, from end to end and from top to water's edge. From this distance they appear like a motionless sea, the foam-topped waves of which have been transfixed in the act of engulfing the city. As one draws nearer again the motionless panorama resolves itself into a living scene. The sun is high in the heavens, its rays are almost vertical, while the multitude below has become an absolute concrete body; no movement in it is possible unless instigated by some common impulse. That impulse is about to be given. There is the deathlike calm that precedes a storm at sea, when only the murmur of the approaching tempest is borne hoarsely to the ear. The long-anticipated signal from the top of the old observatory is caught by the tempest of a million nervous voices; it sweeps in excited gusts from side to side, unites and rolls in one vast tremulous wave from top to bottom, where it heaves and sways for an instant. But such an instant! It seems an eternity; and the frantic, surging, straining multitude in front, bound almost to strangulation in one another's arms, seems as if tottering on the brink of another world.

Why Coins are Struck.

The principal reason that coins are struck and not cast is the well-known fact that molten metals contract on cooling. Thus, counterfeit coins, which are always cast, show fatal variations in size, which authentic stamped coins do not. Secondly, it is impossible to get the same sharpness of delineation as in stamping, and lastly, when the stamping machine is once set up the process of striking coins is infinitely cheaper and more rapid than that of casting ever could be.

DEWEY REFRESHED AFTER THE STRAIN

ADMIRAL WOULD SEE NO VISITORS THIS MORNING.

Hero Receives So Many Letters and Telegrams of Welcome That He Finds it Impossible to Answer Them—Asks Press to Convey Thanks and Best Wishes.

New York, Oct. 2.—[Special.]—At a light breakfast, which Admiral Dewey took at an early hour this morning with close relatives, he expressed himself as being much refreshed after the great strain since landing, and saw no visitors this morning.

At 11 o'clock he started for a brief drive before proceeding to the depot.

Admiral Dewey received so many letters and telegrams of welcome, that he finds it impossible to answer them personally as he would wish, and asks the press of the country to convey his thanks and best wishes to all of his correspondents.

JOHN C. HEMMENS INJURED

Was Run Over by a Team of Horses This Afternoon.

John C. Hemmens, a laborer in the employ of the city, was run over by a team of horses attached to one of the Lender Dairy milk wagons, at 4 o'clock this afternoon, and received painful injuries. Mr. Hemmens was engaged in cleaning the street in front of the Janesville Steam Dye Works on East Milwaukee street and did not notice the approach of the team which was coming down the hill.

One of the horses struck him and knocked him to the ground, and before he could roll out of the way, one of the animals' hoofs struck him in the neck, gashing it painfully. Chief Hogan took the injured man into his buggy and removed him to his home, No. 163, Cherry street, where his wound received attention.

Leave until cold, and then pour it over the fresh eggs, which are carefully arranged in jars, and see that there are none uncovered. Tie the jars over with thick paper, and stand on a shelf in a cool larder or store-room.

Rosa Bonheur's Patriotism.

Rosa Bonheur had many honors showered upon her after the Empress Eugenie gave her the decoration of the Legion of Honor. She was always a staunch patriot. It is related that in 1871 Frederick, crown prince of Prussia, rode into her chateau grounds at the head of a troop of Uhlans. Dismounting, he asked graciously of the great artist would do him the honor of receiving his visit and show him some of her pictures. A servant carried the message to her mistress and in a few seconds returned with the answer: "The crown prince of Prussia is welcome to look at the pictures he wishes to see, but Rosa Bonheur cannot and will not entertain her country's conqueror." The prince, as may be expected, was greatly taken aback with such an answer. For a moment he stood undecided, then said carelessly: "Well, well, so be it; but as I cannot see the artist, I do not care to see her pictures, but tell Rosa Bonheur that her courage is above that of men, for in all France there is not a household where would have dared defy Frederick of Prussia at the head of a regiment of soldiers."

History in Knotted Cords.

Tying knots in the handkerchief, as one's memory had its origin in China thousands of years ago. Before writing was invented in that country, which did not happen until 3000 B. C., memorable and important events were recorded by long knotted cords. The most ancient history of China is still preserved as told by these knots. When Emperor Tschang Ki invented writing the entire system of "knotting" was abandoned. And today the memory knots made by us in handkerchiefs are the only surviving descendants of that ancient and curious custom.

HON. CYRUS MINER CALLED BY DEATH

THE END CAME AT HIS HOME
THIS AFTERNOON.

Was Widely Known and Universally Respected, Both As a Man and a Public Servant—Frank Landon Also Passes Away to the Great Beyond—Other Mortuary Mention.

Hon. Cyrus Miner, one of the best known and highly respected business men of southern Wisconsin, died this afternoon at his home on Court street, after a long illness, aged seventy-two years.

Mr. Miner had not been enjoying good health for some time, but his acute illness was of comparatively recent origin, although he had been confined to the house for some months. It was known that he could not long survive, so his death, while a shock to his family and friends, was not wholly unexpected.

Cyrus Miner was born in Danville, N. Y., on July 24, 1827. He received a common school education, and in 1848 came to Janesville. The Bower City has since been his home, with the exception of two years spent in South America and Australia.

Mr. Miner engaged in the mercantile business in 1859, and has been in business continually since then, until his retirement a few years ago.

From 1875 to 1881 Mr. Miner was a member, and for four years served as treasurer, of the board of trustees for the State Institution for the Blind, in this city. He had also served as a member of the Rock County Board of Supervisors, and as a member of the Janesville Board of Education. He was treasurer of the Rock County Agricultural society for seven years, and for over a dozen years was treasurer of the State Agricultural society.

He was elected a member of the Wisconsin legislature from this assembly district in 1889.

Mr. Miner was a man of unusual strength of character, and his name was a guarantee of honesty and fair dealing among the people of the southern part of the state. The notice of his death will be read with universal sorrow not only in Rock county, but throughout the state.

Beside the widow, three children survive, they being Miss Florence Miner of this city, J. Potter Miner and Fred G. Miner of Chicago.

Funeral arrangements have not yet been completed.

Francis William Landon.

Francis William Landon, a pioneer resident of Janesville, passed peacefully away this morning at 4 o'clock at his home on Mineral Point avenue, after an illness of three weeks duration aged eighty-one years. He leaves to mourn his loss a wife and three children, James, Jessie and Mamie, also three brothers, F. H. Mayhew and James and a sister, Mrs. Chapman, all of whom have the sympathy of their many friends in a time of great sorrow.

The funeral will be held tomorrow afternoon at 2 o'clock at the house. Rev. E. H. Pence, pastor of the Presbyterian church will officiate and the interment will be in Oak Hill cemetery.

Francis William Landon was born at Strafford, Vermont, December 17, 1818, and was the eldest child in the family. He grew to manhood at Strafford, and learned the trade of tanner and shoemaker with his father, who was engaged in these lines.

In September, 1845, Mr. Landon was married to Miss Clarissa Hunter, and removed to this city, engaging in the boot and shoe business. He was the first shoe and boot manufacturer in Janesville, and at one time forty mechanics were in his employ.

In 1852 Mr. Landon retired from business, and turned his attention to horticultural pursuits, and had gained a national reputation as an originator of fruits. The famous "Jessie" strawberry, which he named in honor of his daughter, was one of his productions in this line.

Mr. and Mrs. Landon had three daughters—Martha J., Maria R. and Florence M.

After the death of his wife, Mr. Landon again married, his bride being Miss Elizabeth McDonald of Sturgis, Mich. To them three children were also born, they being Jessie L., James G. and Mary Elizabeth.

Mr. Landon was a republican in politics, and a member of the Episcopal church. He was held in the highest esteem by all, and his death will be the occasion of much genuine sorrow.

Alexander McNaughton

Very impressive funeral services were held over the remains of the late Alexander McNaughton at the home, No. 56 Rock street, yesterday afternoon at 12:45 o'clock. Rev. E. H. Pence, pastor of the Presbyterian church, officiated, Mr. McNaughton being a member of that church. The Knights Templar did escort duty, assisted by a delegation from Woodstock, the departed one being a member of that commandery. The Woodstock delegation accompanied the remains to Salem, New York for interment. Mr. McNaughton was a veteran of the civil war, being a member of the Thirtieth Illinois Infantry.

John Heagney

John Heagney, an early settler in Janesville, departed from this mortal sphere yesterday afternoon at his home, No. 2 Hickory street, at 2:15 o'clock, after an illness of nine weeks, aged seventy-seven years. He leaves a wife and four sons, Thomas, James, John and William, all of this city. Mr. Heagney had resided in this city since the year 1851, residing in New York city until he removed to Janesville.

The funeral services will be held tomorrow morning at 9 o'clock at St.

REV. F. C. MARYON RESIGNS PASTORATE

TO LEAVE LOCAL TRINITY EPISCOPAL CHURCH.

Will Depart From the City, Which is Made Necessary By the Nervous State of Wife's Health—Receives a Call to Kemper Hall, Kenosha—Appointment of Successor.

Janesville people will regret to learn that Rev. F. C. Maryon, B. A., rector of Trinity Episcopal church, has resigned the pastorate and will leave the city sometime during the present month. The fact has been known to the trustees of the church for some time, but the announcement was not made to the congregation until yesterday.

Rev. Maryon's resignation is necessitated by the nervous state of his wife's health. Mrs. Maryon has never fully recovered from the shock occasioned by the death of their little daughter some time ago, and the doctors say that she must leave the city and get away from the associations surrounding the sad event.

Rev. Maryon came to Janesville from West Bend, Wis., about a year and a half ago, and during his eighteen months pastorate has endeared himself to his congregation, all of whom regret to have him leave. He has done great good for the church, and during his rectorship many communicants have been added. There has been a considerable increase in the income, and the choir has been much improved. Rev. Maryon has received a call to Kemper Hall, the diocesan school for girls at Kenosha, where he has accepted the position of chaplain to the school.

A new rector for Trinity church will be appointed during the present month.

INSPECTED STONE CRUSHING PLANT

HIGHWAY COMMITTEE OF COUNCIL PAY A VISIT.

City Fathers Are Well Pleased and Find it Perfect in Every Detail—Put in by F. C. Austin Manufacturing Company at Barron Quarry—Cost of $5,000.

This morning the members of the highway committee of the common council formally inspected the new stone crushing plant put in by the F. C. Austin Manufacturing company at the Barron quarry west of the city, and all were highly pleased with it. The crusher is perfect in every detail.

The crusher takes any size stone up to ten by twenty inches and crushes it so perfectly that every fragment is cubed, leaving all corners, which road builders claim is essential to good work.

The capacity of the machine if fed properly is from five hundred to six hundred cubic yards of stone for ten hours work. The crusher itself weighs twenty-seven tons and delivers the broken stone directly into an endless elevator which carries it to the top of the bin house, where it passes through a revolving cylindrical steel sieve, giving four grades of rock. The several sizes are separated automatically and deposited in bins, from which they are loaded directly into the wagons.

The latter operation is very simple, and the driver can load his wagon from the seat, by simply turning a lever. A feature of the machine is the oiling apparatus, and consists of a pump arrangement which keeps the oil in constant motion.

The drill used is very effective and with it a six foot hole can be drilled in the solid rock in twenty minutes. The bin house is 20x20 and sixteen feet high, roofed over. The rock will be carried from the quarry to the machine by two dump cars with automatic side lifts and may be operated by one man. The power for the crusher consists of a thirty-horse power Erie engine, and a forty-horse power F. C. Austin boiler.

Among those who witnessed the test this morning were Aldermen Gilkey, Palmer, Rice and McLean, and City Engineer Brown, Street Commissioner Frederick City, Electrician Kline, City Attorney Burpee, and several others, and all were highly pleased.

"The committee is highly pleased with the plant so far," said Chairman Rice. Head Millwright John Taggart has been superintending the details of the construction for the past month, and G. W. Welch, the company's expert, and traveling salesman, who sold the plant to the city, is here, looking after the final details.

The entire plant cost the city in the neighborhood of $5,000.

WHERE DEWEY WILL REST

Among His Native Vermont Hills He Will Find a Safe Retreat & Scenes About Montpelier Which the Great Admiral Will Visit.

BY ANDREW DOWNS.

When Admiral Dewey has finished with the public receptions, reviewed all the parades in his honor, attended a score or so of banquets and shaken by the hand a multitude of admiring Americans, he will need a rest about as badly as any man in the country. He will get it too. He will drop into the navy department some day and have a little talk with Secretary Long. He will say something about needing shore leave, and the secretary will say: "That's all right, admiral. You just run right along and take as long a rest as you want to. I'll fix it. All you have to do is to let us know where you would like your pay envelope sent."

And where do you suppose Admiral Dewey will go?

It will be late in the fall then. The enterprising managers of a thousand winter resort hotels will be begging him to accept a suit of rooms in their establishments. A thousand rich acquaintances will be inviting him to spend a month or two as their guest. Every door in the land, in fact, will be open to him.

But the place he will visit first will be none other than Montpelier, that sleepy little Vermont town which nestles close to the heart of the Green mountains. Back where he spent his boyhood, back where his earliest and pleasantest memories call him, will go the great admiral.

"When a man has done his work," says Tipling, "home is a good place to come back to." And surely Dewey has done his work.

There are more than memories to take Admiral Dewey back to Montpelier. Two of his brothers live there; both gray haired, soft eyed, quiet men. His only sister, two years his junior, lives there also. She was his constant companion and playfellow when he was a boy. He was her hero. She loved him with the devotion which only a little sister can show. When he performed acrobatic tricks or gave an impromptu minstrel show in Dr. Dewey's barn, she was the audience. When he tramped for miles up and down the Winooski after trout, she trudged doggedly behind, carrying the bait.

But beyond these three there are very few persons in the Vermont capital who would be anything more to "the third admiral" than a faint memory. Most of the boys with whom Dewey played half a century ago have either wandered far away or been laid to rest in the old churchyard under the swaying elms.

But the mountains and the meadows and the streams, the places where he hunted and fished and climbed, are unchanged. Half a century makes but little impression on these rugged, green clad hills, and the admiral, fresh from the heat and dirt and squalor of the orient, longs to see these once familiar scenes again. His eyes hunger for the sight of the shady village street, the clean, neat, green and white cottages and the stately hills.

The house where Dewey was born still stands in Montpelier, although it has been moved from its original location. The old Dewey homestead, where his father was born and where his grandfather lived for so many years, still stands in the little village of Berlin, about four miles south of Montpelier.

It is settled that Admiral Dewey is to visit his brother Edward. How long that visit will be has not been settled. Edward Dewey's home is a pretty frame house that peers out from the trees at the main street. It looks comfortable and homelike.

The admiral will find Montpelier just as restful as ever. He can get all kinds of rest there. In fact, there is not much else to be found in the town, except the legislature, and that is in session for only a brief period once in two years.

Picture to yourself a town of a single street and that street following with faithfulness the windings of a little river. The valley widens in the center of the town, and a second street crosses the first. Back of the river street, a few blocks of dwellings are terraced up the hillside.

That is all there is of Montpelier, capital of the Green Mountain State. It would seem that nature sought to reclaim it, for lofty and ancient elms shadow the houses, and giant sycamores rival in the mottled silver of their trunks the pattern of light and dark thrown by their branching foliage upon the highway under them.

The primordial forest has yielded here a space with reluctance. The town, you would say, is in part a grove and in part a community. Overhead in the tree thatch you hear at intervals voices from the wild community of feathered creatures that ignore the rooftrees rising about them.

Whatever may come, it is hard to imagine that the serenity of the little town should be disturbed. It seems not only an observatory of the elements, but a passive spectator of human affairs.

It seems so because to its mountain isolation is added the imperturbability of its local character. And yet it is only a seeming, for the storms of events have raged around it and swept through it with a century's iteration. Hostile French and Indian parties made the Winooski valley a marching trail in their forays upon the English settlements.

From those mountains was dealt the first great blow for freedom when the clash of arms came in the Revolution, and the statue of Ethan Allen stands to this day in the porch of the capitol.

Out of this same town almost every one who could shoulder a rifle marched to the defense of the Union, and a generation afterward the voice of its greatest son was heard on the other side of the world evoking from the smoke of a sinking fleet with the vast incantation of cannon the genius of a new empire.

All of these events it saw, and part of them it was, but the village sleeps on and its pulse beats no quicker. Still, you would say it is but a watchtower on the hills, overlooking things that do not concern it very much.

I suppose the native town of George Dewey is really proud of him, but it is that self contained and stubborn pride that will not go much beyond the avowal that he had fulfilled the traditions of his community. The memory of a black eyed, bright faced boy is dear to its streets, but it must be said that it is the faintest sort of memory.

That is the pathetic shadow, that must cross the recollections of any man no longer young who has gone out from his native town in youth and has not come back again. To any one outside the sweet foggy, dark eyed younger sister in Montpelier and the two gray haired elder brothers Admiral Dewey is now little more than a name, although a majestic one.

But they are anxious to see him return. In a dignified way the people of the town and state will welcome the hero of Manila Bay quite heartily. The governor and the legislature will greet him with speeches and resolutions, and they will set up his statue opposite that of Ethan Allen. Then they will let him rest at his ease, this great admiral whose work is done.

Chicago played one game yesterday of the announced double-header, and lost. Rain delayed the start until so late that darkness was coming on even before the game with Cincinnati was over, so that a meeting with Louisville was out of the question, and the Colonels were not required to come to the field. The only other game yesterday was between St. Louis and Cleveland, which resulted as expected. The standing:

Montpelier, Va., Oct. 2.—A message received from Gov. Smith in this city is to the effect that Dewey day will be Oct. 12. The day in Montpelier will probably surpass any holiday the state has ever known. The day following the celebration the admiral will go to Northfield to attend the laying of the cornerstone of Dewey hall at the university there.

Canada's Big Wheat Surplus.

Toronto, Ont., Oct. 2.—The final crop estimates show Canada will have an apparent surplus of 50,000,000 bushels of wheat for export, as against 30,000,000 last year. But the actual surplus for export will be larger.

Among the Malayalls.

The Malayalls, a caste of Madras, have a most curious custom. A man having very young sons takes to himself new wives, which he calls his sons' wives, the children of the marriage being called the sons' children. This particular relation continues from one generation to another.

TO SAIL FOR AMERICA'S CUP.

Columbia and Shamrock Meet in First Race Tomorrow.

New York, Oct. 2.—Beginning Tuesday morning at 11 o'clock and continuing Thursday and Saturday of this week and Tuesday, Thursday and Saturday of next week, if so many trials shall be necessary, a series of races will be sailed between the British sloop yacht Shamrock and American sloop yacht Columbia for the yachting championship of the world, the emblem of which is the old silver cup, weighing 100 ounces, won by the famous schooner yacht America in 1851.

According to the judgment of all who have followed the two yachts in such trials as they have had, Columbia has shown much greater speed in winds of twelve knots per hour and under, and all of the friends of the Shamrock that have seen the Columbia out of water have conceded that in the lighter winds their beauty has no hope. They concede this by saying that they hope for stiff breezes.

In the opinion of all the writers, Shamrock has no chance at all in any kind of a race where the wind is lighter than twelve knots, and they are agreed that the chances are at best as three to two in wind up to about half a gale. On the whole, therefore, the chances are much in favor of Columbia.

CAPT. CARTER NOW IN JAIL

Army Man Must Don Stripes—Court-Martial Sentence Confirmed.

Washington, Oct. 2.—In the case of Capt. Oberlin M. Carter, the court-martial sentence to dismissal from the army, to pay $5,000 fine and serve five years in the penitentiary at hard labor was approved Friday by President McKinley.

New York, Oct. 2.—In cell No. 8 of Castle William, the military prison on Governor's island, Oberlin M. Carter, no longer a captain in the United States army, but a prisoner convicted of misappropriating funds while in charge of river and harbor work at Savannah, Ga., passed a disconsolate day Sunday. He feels the degradation that has come upon him keenly, and most of his time, his guards say, he spent with his head buried in his hands.

What a Little Faith Did FOR MRS. ROCKWELL.

[LETTER TO MRS. PINKHAM NO. 69,84.]

"I was a great sufferer from female weakness and had no strength. It was impossible for me to attend to my household duties. I had tried everything and many doctors, but found no relief.

"My sister advised me to try Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound, which I did; before using all of one bottle I felt better. I kept on with it and to my great surprise I am cured. All who suffer from female complaints should give it a trial."—MRS. ROCKWELL, 1299 S. DIVISION ST., GRAND RAPIDS, MICH.

From a Grateful Newark Woman.

"When I wrote to you I was very sick, had not been well for two years. The doctors did not seem to help me, and one said I could not live three months. I had womb trouble, falling ulcers, kidney and bladder trouble. There seemed to be such a drawing and burning pain in my bowels that I could not rest anywhere. After using Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound and Sanaive Wash and following your advice, I feel well again and stronger than ever. My bowels feel as if they had been made over new. With many thanks for your help, I remain, L. G., 74 ANN ST., NEWARK, N. J."

WINE OF CARDUI

Woman Knows Woman.

ZURICH, KAN., Jan. 31.
I used Wine of Cardui for nervousness and weakness in the womb. After taking one bottle I was well again. I am a midwife and always recommend Wine of Cardui to my lady friends during pregnancy and after birth as a tonic. Every lady who takes it finds that it does even more than is claimed for it.
MRS. V. M. BOISVERT.

Wine of Cardui

Nobody knows woman like woman. Men go to medical colleges, study books and listen to lectures. They learn indirectly of the diseases of women, but they are men and can never fully understand the ailments, the sufferings, the agonies of mothers, wives and sisters. A woman knows. Mrs. Boisvert knows. She has passed through the trials and tribulations of her sex. She has been near by when her sisters suffered. She has seen them relieved and cured with Wine of Cardui. Is it any wonder she recommends it? Is it any wonder that thousands of other women recommend it? They know. They have actual experience to prompt them. They spread the tidings from mouth to mouth, telling how Wine of Cardui helps young girls, helps the weak of all ages, helps and cures all womanly ills.

In the old days Mexican revolutions were begun by military commanders, whose troops joined in the movement. Under Diaz revolts in the army are unknown; and as it is loyal to the central government revolts by anybody else are hardly possible. General Torres' recent success against the Yaquis has been due to the discipline imposed upon the army by Diaz.

It was the Suffolk Chronicle which sixty

TOO SUCCESSFUL.

Attempt to Arouse a Youth Awakes the Entire House.

The fire department had a narrow escape from an early morning run a few days ago. A young man who swaggers and smokes cigarettes on the street, but who is still controlled at home by a stern and somewhat disappointed parent, arranged for a trip with some of his cronies. The party was to start at 2 a. m., but the aforesaid S. and S. D. parent ruled that boys should be getting their beauty sleep at that hour, and refused to allow an appeal from his ruling. The youngster sulked to no purpose and then acknowledged his predicament to his friends. He was jeered a little, and then some one suggested that he "sneak out." This seemed an opening to re-establish him in the estimation of his friends, so it was arranged that he should tie a string to his toe, dropping one end from the window. This was to be pulled by the others when they came along. Everything was carried out according to schedule except the pulling of the string. One of the young jackanapes suggested that they ignite the end of the cord and allow it to burn up to the sleeper's toe. The spark was soon glowing and creeping upward. It reached the bed clothing before the toe, however, and the result was an outpouring of smoke which frightened the boys below into apous-ing the household and then scampering off. The occupant of the room was awakened by the smoke, and when discovered by his parent was dragging about a piece of string tied to his toe. Explanations followed and diplomatic relations are now strained in that household.—Brockton Enterprise.
